- Tripura government signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Indian Hotels Company Limited (IHCL) of TATA Group to build a world-class 5-star heritage hotel in Pushpabanta Palace, the royal guest house of Manikya dynasty.

At the beginning, Tripura royal scion and BJP's ally in the government Pradyot Kishore Debbarman opposed the move of commercialization of heritage property and later, it was resolved after TATA Group agreed to honour Article III of the Tripura Merger Agreement, signed in 1949 during accession with Indian union.

The world-class accommodation facility comprising 100 rooms with at least four exclusive rooms with royal touch will be built outside the main palace premises, ensuring a seamless fusion of heritage and contemporary luxury at the estimated cost of Rs 250 crore, said Chief Minister Dr Manik Saha attending the MoU signing ceremony along with Industries Minister Santana Chakma and Tourism Minister Sushanta Chowdhury.
